Company Profile:

Muslim Ad Network (MAN) is the world's largest Muslim advertising company servicing the global Muslim market. Our clients include some of the most well-respected digital brands for the Muslim consumer.

Reaching Muslim consumers online has traditionally been complex, expensive and time consuming. Through MAN, an advertiser can finally tap into one single platform to reach millions of Muslim consumers instantly wherever they are browsing online, including the Internet's most popular websites, social media platforms, mobile apps and more.

We can configure advertising campaigns to a variety of objectives including brand lift, traffic acquisition and generating sales.

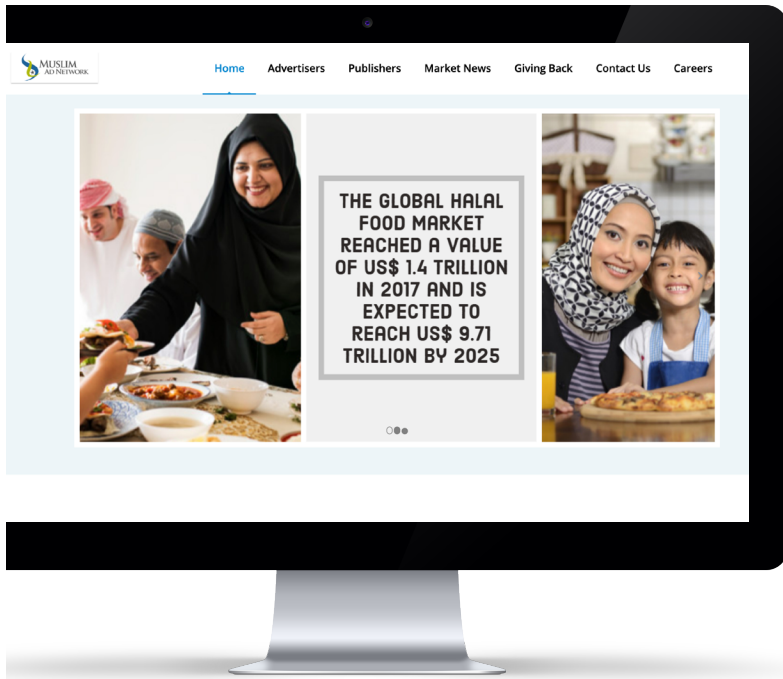

Our network of sites offers its consumers complete access to fully-integrated, multi-platformed online news and entertainment portals whilst giving advertisers the opportunity to directly reach the coveted Muslim consumer.

MAN consists of a network of online media destinations as diverse as the community itself. We avoid categorizing the Muslim consumer as a monolithic entity and have built a vast network highlighting the various tastes, interests and backgrounds of the Muslim community. MAN offers a two-fold advertising solution.

First, we attract Muslim consumers to one of our signature online destinations best reflecting their own unique interests. Secondly, by linking portions of our network together, we unify our audience and effectively communicate our advertisers' message to a broad consumer base.

MAN includes cutting-edge ad targeting capabilities. Utilizing we keep our online consumers connected with every aspect of their diverse community.

Our Accomplishments:

We served over a billion ads to Muslim consumers

Access to 10,000+ publishers across the web and rapidly growing

Exclusive audience inventory only accessible to MAN's network

“Muslim consumers globally, while culturally diverse and geographically distributed, drive a cohesive two-trillion-dollar market opportunity across a range of lifestyle products and services, impacted by Islamic faith-inspired ethical needs, and collectively known as the “Islamic Economy.”

- (State of Global Islamic Economy Report - Dinar Standard™)

Why Brands Should Reach Muslim Consumers During Ramadan

The majority of Muslims indicate that their faith and traditions impact their purchase decisions. But, the Muslim demographic is enormously diverse, making it hard to define a single and simple way to reach this audience. The month of Ramadan is the one touchpoint shared across the group, presenting a unique opportunity to establish meaningful connections with Muslim communities globally.

Key Stats:

- ✓ During Ramadan, Muslim consumer online traffic is up by 230%. And it's not just users who are only looking, people are buying. The data indicates that conversion is up by 30% during Ramadan. As you might expect, social media is more active as well, primarily at night. The increase peaks at 3 am when it reaches 200%. There is also evidence that customer loyalty, evidenced by repeat online visits and purchases, increases substantially during Ramadan as well." - Forbes
- ✓ According to the Pew Research Center, the Muslim population in the U.S. is about 3.5 Million. OF those, 80% say they fast during Ramadan
- ✓ Muslims across the world give millions of dollars to charities during Ramadan, some organizations reporting to have collected as high as $17 million (VOA News)
- ✓ Muslims in the UK alone have donated £130 million to charities during Ramadan (Muslim Charity Forum)
- ✓ Muslims in the UK spend an estimated £200m during the Ramadan season. Pre-pandemic it was the third-biggest season of the year after Christmas and Easter. Their contribution to the UK economy as a whole is about £31bn annually." - Ogilvy
